1. The Schkeuditz (M 52/E 12) airfield was not occupied by Soviet Air Force units on 6 January 1950. The grass cover of the landing field was intact. A "people-owned" factory was housed in the former Siebel Plant at the field.
2. The Schkeuditz military station and the air field were not occupied by units between 21 December 1949 and 27 January 1950. No aircraft landed at the field. The boundary lights were broken but the landing field was serviceable.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment:

The report, which is supplied by two sources, was confirmed by other sources. The airfield is in such condition that it may be occupied by an air unit at any time.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
